

parallel transport

one curve and a connection are enough:
the answer depends on X only at the point

Lie dragging

the whole neighbouring flow is needed:
the answer depends on how X itself varies