

the grey vectors are the coordinate basis ∂_μ read off the chart: neither unit nor orthogonal, and different at every event the coloured vectors are the tetrad: e_0 is the four velocity of the observer and the e_i are the rods of their laboratory, orthonormal at p, at q and at every event